Dear Earnesteen:

Thank you so much for your telephone call concerning my new appointment. This letter is a belated one, but I did not want to thank you in writing until I had been made legal by the confirmation process and the swearing-in.

I have always enjoyed our association in this great Agency. You are a dedicated and professional member of a key component of that Agency

I feel confident that the future will be a good one.

All the best to you and your family.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
